

Extension of Application Deadline for MAS and PhD Programs

November 11, 2025

The deadline for submission of applications to the Master of Applied Sciences (MAS) and PhD programs at Madan Bhandari University of Science and Technology has been extended for the remaining available seats. Admissions shall be granted on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to completion of admission process by November 20, 2025. Applications received after the previous deadline(s) will also be considered in this phase.

The eligibility criteria and selection process shall remain unchanged and shall be in accordance with the provisions outlined in the earlier notice(s).

Programs accepting applications

- Organic Agriculture (OA): MAS only
- Forest Biomaterials Science and Engineering (FBMSE): MAS and PhD
- Sustainable and Resilient Infrastructure (SRI): MAS and PhD

Financial assistance for selected research topics

Financial assistance is available for selected research topics in FBMSE and SRI programs. Financial assistance for PhD students consists of a scholarship for 36 months at the rate of Rs. 20,000 per month along with a full fee waiver. For MAS students, it includes a scholarship for 24 months at the rate of Rs. 12,000 per month and a full fee waiver.

Financial assistance is available to 1 student in FBMSE program at MAS or PhD level and up to 2 students in SRI at MAS and/or PhD level, for the following research topics:

- Forest Biomaterials Science and Engineering (FBMSE): Timber treatment.
- Sustainable and Resilient Infrastructure (SRI): Hiking and trekking trails; bamboo structures.

Apply online at <https://mbust.bbnepal.com>. For details, please visit www.mbust.edu.np or email info@mbust.edu.np.

Director

Institute of Applied Sciences